

You Hold It All

Rowan Laljith

Verse 1

I'm coming back
With all my brokenness
Every circumstance
I lay it before you
With all I am
Every dream I've dreamt
Every hope I've held
I lay it down

Pre-Chorus

You've seen the end from the beginning
And I know you will work it all for good
Work it all for good.

Chorus

You hold it all
You hold it all together
All that I am
Safe in your hands forever
I'm letting go
Coz You are the one who holds it all
You hold it all together.

Verse 2

You lift me up
You reached out your hand
By your grace I stand
Surrendered forever
With arms held high
I will sing again
Coz, Jesus you won't fail
So I will remember.

Bridge

No storm no rain
No wind no waves
No stone no grave
Can stand against
The hands that formed
The earth the sky
The day the night
This heart this life
You hold it all .
